Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 5-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The terminology "expressed by the general formula" is considered to render the claims indefinite since it is not clear if the parameters of the formula must be followed or not. How general is considered to be within the limitations of the claim?

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
4. Claims 5-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Japanese document 51-22093.

The Japanese document teaches a composition including $\text{Ni}(\text{Al}_x\text{Cr}_y\text{Fe}_z)_2\text{O}_4$, see column 1 and examples in Tables on page 429.

It is noted that the reference does not teach that the composition can be used in the manner instantly claimed, however, the intended use of the claimed composition does not patentably distinguish the composition, per se, since such undisclosed use is inherent in the reference composition. In order to be limiting, the intended use must create a structural difference between the claimed composition and the prior art composition. In the instant case, the intended use does not create a structural difference, thus the intended use is not limiting. Please note that when applicant claims a composition in terms of function and the composition of the prior art appears to be the same, the Examiner may make a rejection under both 35 U.S.C. 102 and 103, expressed as a 102/103 rejection (MPEP 2112).

5. Claims 5-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a or e) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Liu et al (7,014,811).

The continuing data is considered to predate the date of the priority date of the instant application. Patent 6,423,195 includes Al in the formula. See compositions of table 3 that fall squarely within the claims. It is noted that the reference does not teach that the composition can be used in the manner instantly claimed, however, the intended use of the claimed composition does not patentably distinguish the composition.

6. Claims 5 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Tuan et al (5,482,907).

See Table 1, for ZnAl_2O_4 and NiAl_2O_4 as well as example 5 in Table 2. The claims are considered anticipated.

7. Claims 5 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a or e) as being anticipated by Akimoto et al (6,403,218).

See examples 1-5 for NiAl_2O_4 composition. The claims are considered anticipated.

8. Claims 5 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Okada et al (6,218,335).

See examples 3,4,5, for ZnAl_2O_4 , CoAl_2O_4 and NiAl_2O_4 as well as example 5 in Table 2. The claims are considered anticipated.

9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP

Art Unit: 1755

§ 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
